

What So Will Buy

CHOICE OF

2 lbs. Onions	1 1/2 Vineand
Head Lettuce	1/2 pk. Spinach
1 Bk. Celery	1 pk. Spinach
1 Grape Fruit	1 Red Banana
1 Neuf. Cheese	1 French Pear
1 Delicious Apple	2 Rome Apples
1 1/2 Hub Squash

For Your Sunday Dinner

Small Maryland Turkey, lb. 38c
Extra Sirloin Steak, lb. 25c
Genuine Lamb Legs, lb. 25c
Little Pig Loin, lb. 25c
Extra Fancy Roast Beef, lb. 25c
Rib Roast Beef, lb. 25c
Grapefruit, wholesale by box
Fancy Apples, wholesale by box

The Sirloin is our best, you can't pay more for it. Just as advertised.

SOMERS

THE NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE

stands for Efficient Instruction—
Practical Training—
Up-to-date Equipment—
Unexcelled facilities for placing its graduates.
No better time to enter than NOW.

Day or Night Classes.

THE NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE
99-105 Main Street
W. E. CANFIELD, Proprietor

MRS. MABREY'S MINCE AND SQUASH PIES

For Thanksgiving
Order Early from RALLION'S

NEWEST DESIGNS

Pendants, Ringe, Bracelets, Bracelet Watches, Cameo Jewelry.

Just the very thing you want for Xmas gifts you will find here.

Established 1872

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.
JEWELERS
144 Main Street

DR. SHAHAN

Marion Block, 326 Main Street
SPECIALIST
on Diseases of the Stomach and Rheumatism
2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Tel. 821

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN TEACHER
All String Instruments repaired
Violins sold on easy terms
For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

R. R. AGNEW, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon
Room 214 Thayer Building
Norwich, Conn. Greenview office:
Office Hours: 12-2
2-4 p. m.; 7-8 except Wednesday
7-8 Wednesday and Saturday evenings, and by Saturday appointment

STETSON & YOUNG, Carpenters and Builders

Best work and materials at right prices by skilled labor.
Telephone. 50 WEST MAIN ST.

JOSEPH BRADFORD, BOOK BINDER

Blank Books Made and Ruled to Order.
108 BROADWAY

MONEY LOANED

on Diamonds, Watches, jewelry and securities of any kind at the lowest rates of interest. An established firm to deal with.
THE COLLATERAL LOAN CO.
128 State Street, upstairs.
(Established 1875.)

MARKET PRICES PAID FOR RAW FURS

AT 22 WATER STREET
THURSDAYS AND SATURDAYS
A. C. BENNETT

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, Nov. 22, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Yesterday was the last Sunday after Pentecost in the church calendar.

Local people have been at Watch Hill and Ocean Beach to see the big surf lashed up by the gale.

Robert T. Varnum of Pomfret, has leased the Kane cottage in Bellevue avenue, Newport, for the winter.

Neosha whist tonight in Foresters' hall.—Adv.

The bans of marriage have been published between John Morrison of Westerly and Miss Mary Clifford of Willimantic.

A collection for the Catholic university at Washington will be taken up in all the churches of this diocese on Sunday next.

The funeral of Halsey L. Allen was held at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church, Rockville, Rev. H. Rougas Pierce officiating.

Barges Emperor and William C. Moore, from New York, are discharged in their cargoes of wheat at the Thames Specialties company, at Montville.

Rev. J. H. Buckley of Rockville preached in the Wesley Methodist church at Warehouse Point Sunday morning in exchange with Rev. C. H. Van Natta.

The Central Village Fire company has received a check for $15.00 from John Eaton in Wauregan in appreciation of the work they did at the Eaton fire about a week ago.

A meeting of the board of managers of the Connecticut society, Sons of the American Revolution, is to be held at the Hotel Taft, New Haven, at 12 o'clock, Wednesday.

There is a demand by collectors and others for the new Lincoln cents. The new coins bear a D, indicating their mintage at Denver, and are the first cents to be so marked.

A former Franklin pastor, Rev. H. A. Beadle, now of Pomfret, is away on his vacation, visiting his sisters, one in Virginia, another in Washington, and a brother in Port Royal, S. C.

The Connecticut Society of Colonial Dames has received an invitation from Mrs. Oliver Jennings to hold the June meeting, at which the annual election of officers is held, in Fairfield.

The Chamber of Commerce has been asked by the American Defense society to cooperate in making December 6, which marks the opening of congress, American Defense day.

Stephen Robbins, 82, died at the home of his nephew, Dr. B. B. Robbins, in Bristol Friday. He was born in Ashford and was a member of company B, Twelfth Connecticut Volunteers.

At Mystic, when the Prosperity banquet of the Men's club was held on Thursday evening at the Hotel Horatio Bigelow of Norwich, of the Climax company read an original poem.

At the annual conference on county farm bureaus and county league work for the state, held at New Haven, Fred C. Warner, county agent, of Norwich, will speak on Value of Records in County Work.

Miss Catherine E. Boyle, visitor for the women's society of the independent Catholic children, was at St. Andrew's church, Colchester, Sunday after the church was closed to obtain homes for dependent children.

The girls of the Halle club gave a well attended supper at their rooms in the Chapman building, Broadway, Saturday evening, entertaining Mrs. William Camp Leaman, now at Fisher's Island and elsewhere.

That no miscellaneous supplies can be purchased by any post office without authority of the department at Washington, is the substance of an order received by the local post office from the department at Washington.

The household goods of Rev. Charles Tibbets of East Greenwich, R. I., the new pastor of the Unitarian Methodist Episcopal church, arrived Saturday morning. Rev. Mr. Tibbets conducted services Sunday morning.

Nineteen cases of alleged violations of the automobile laws will be heard by Secretary of State Charles D. Burnes at the capitol Tuesday afternoon including Thomas H. Howe, of London, failure of pay for markers, using temporary ones.

Today (Monday) the officials in the automobile department of the office of the secretary of state will send out orders to owners of automobiles and motorcycles to renew their registration for the coming year. The notices will be sent to 50,000 persons.

An organization to be known as the Connecticut Public Health association, for the promotion of health and uniform action among health associations and to assist generally in the improvement of health conditions throughout the state, will be informed soon.

Walter C. Tanner of Voluntown has received a check for $10 from the county agricultural society as a premium on ten ears of Rhode Island flint field corn which he exhibited at the Norwich fair in September. The corn was entered under the special corn prize.

Cochran camp, No. 3566, W. W. of A. of Montville held an open meeting Sunday afternoon, to which women were invited, for the purpose of organizing the Royal Car Inspectors and auxiliary of the Woodmen. Mrs. Elizabeth Doe of New London, gave an address.

After disposing of the short calendar business in the superior court at Danbury Friday afternoon, Judge Milton A. Shumway, of Danbury, had court adjourned until Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1916. On that date Judge Shumway will commence the hearing of a big lumber suit.

Conductor, engineer and crew with light engine were stationed at Saybrook Junction Friday and Saturday in case of emergency. Car Inspector and signal men also along the line were protecting the trains which were carrying the football enthusiasts to Cambridge, Mass., and return.

At the masses in St. Patrick's church Sunday, prayers were offered for the repose of the soul of Rev. W. H. Ironsides Reaney, chaplain U. S. N., son of the commander of the old Ironsides, who was on Dewey's flagship at Manila bay and who died in New York Thursday.

PERSONALS

Alexander Sharp has been on a business trip to New York.

Miss Lillian Parker of Norwich was visiting at Albert Robinson's in Attawaugan recently.

Frank Bishop of New York has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. J. Bailey, of Yantic.

Mrs. Marshall Russell of Voluntown was the guest of Miss Nellie J. Buckley of Norwich.

Bertram Bailey of Syracuse, N. Y. is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey, of Yantic.

Dave Robinson has returned to Waverbury from Norwich, where he has been visiting friends for a few days.

Mrs. Mary E. D. Bishop of Norwich was a recent visitor with her cousin, Mrs. Henry Truesdell, and Mrs. Fannie, of Packard.

Rev. C. Fred Eldredge of Niantic has been at his summer home, Kill Kare bungalow, Lord's Point, to close it for the season.

Miss Florence E. Olin, a teacher in Palmer Memorial school, Montville, attended the funeral of her uncle, Waldo Tillingshast, at Plainfield Saturday.

Mrs. Billings Payne, formerly of Norwich, who makes her home with her son, Dr. Frank Payne, of Westerly, was a Norwich visitor Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Snyder has returned to her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis of 52 Asylum street, after a year and a half of visiting in Oregon, Idaho and points of interest.

Rev. William F. Newton, state collector for Connecticut, has been staying for a week at the home of Martin O. Chapman at North Stonington while he is here on business.

Rev. William F. Newton, state collector for Connecticut, has been staying for a week at the home of Martin O. Chapman at North Stonington while he is here on business.

Mrs. C. Palmer Hewitt.

The funeral of Addie H. wife of C. F. Palmer, died, from her home in Preston on Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. A. L. Tedford, pastor of the Preston City Baptist church, officiated at the funeral service. Four friends acted as bearers and burial took place in the cemetery. The service was a small one.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

James M. Dowling.

Saturday morning at 8:15 o'clock, the funeral of James M. Dowling was held from his late home, No. 265 Yantic street, and numbered in the large attendance were relatives and friends from New York city. At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. F. L. Farrell. The bearers were Dr. Patrick Coleman, John Flanagan, Lewis Haggerty and Dennis Brennan and burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were a number of kindred floral offerings.

NORWICH BULLETIN, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1915

GIVE FOR THE FORMER PASTOR'S PORTRAIT

Broadway Cnogrational Church Received Picture of Rev. John P. Gulliver—Prepared by One of His Daughters.

Art Department Head at Rockford College—Reminiscences Given at Presentation.

Reminiscences of the late Rev. Dr. John P. Gulliver, pastor of the Broadway Cnogrational church from 1846 to 1866, that brought back vividly his forceful personality and influence in the community, were given at the session of the Broadway Sunday school at noon on Sunday when a portrait of Dr. Gulliver was presented to the church.

There was a full attendance at the school session when Superintendent B. Cary called it to order and turned the conduct of the exercises for the presentation over to the pastor, Rev. E. E. Worcester. A number of the members of the church, Rev. Mr. Worcester said, had felt that though they had on the walls the picture of the one so prominent in the church history, there was one gap that ought to be filled up, and that they had taken upon themselves to secure it. They could not secure a picture of Dr. Gulliver, its pastor from 1846 to 1866. As much as it was any one man's church, it was Dr. Gulliver's church, so that it was very fitting that his picture should not be missing.

The pastor introduced Deacon A. A. Browning to make the presentation, saying that he had acted as a leader in securing the portrait.

Mr. Browning and B. P. Bishop, who as chairman of the board of trustees of the church, had secured the portrait, said that they had secured it in a most fitting manner. Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

Dr. Gulliver had done so much for the church, that it was fitting that his portrait should be in the church.

SURE OF THE GRAVE.

The One Thing Upon Which Every Mortal Can Count, Rev. F. J. Kuster Reminds St. Patrick's Congregation.

The fact that yesterday was the last Sunday of the ecclesiastical year suggested the topic of Rev. F. J. Kuster's sermon at the high mass in St. Patrick's church, after he had read the gospel for the feast, which was Matt. XXIV, 15-25. In this Christ warns his disciples of the second coming of the Son of Man for the general judgment.

The preacher reminded his attentive auditors that the one thing of which every human being is sure is death, and that he is on the path to the grave. Sooner or later this is the fate of all. Now sinners can upon God for mercy; they can be assured it will not be in vain; He will forgive, as the loving father in the parable forgive the Prodigal Son; as Christ in His infinite compassion forgive the penitent Magdalene.

But there will come a day when the cry for mercy will be too late. When, with the people, past and present, of the universe, every man shall be judged.

On that dread day Christ will come as a Judge, and will separate the good from the evil. As an Adjuster—to correct what in this world seems like inequality, the trials of the righteous and the flourishing of the sinful, as an Avenger—to deal with all men in exact justice, and as a Rewarder—to mete out to each one of us the wages of his life.

It is well, the preacher said, ever to keep this day of general judgment in mind. Man need never forget the duties and tasks of each day be done in the best possible manner and to the glory of God.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.

He who has lived his life in the shadow of the cross, and who has followed the path of duty, will find that the day of judgment will be a day of triumph.